HISTORY

OF THE

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE,

1253 то 1900.

The earliest mention of a Secretary to the Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

A second Secretary to the King appears for the first time in the 12th year of the reign of Henry VI, 1433, and from this appointment arose the term "Principal" or "Chief" or "First" Secretary: but it was not until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, that the office of King's Principal Secretary was divided between two persons, with equal rank and duties.

The first use of the title "Secretary of State" occurred in the 43rd year of the reign of Elizabeth, 1601, when Sir Robert Cecill was styled "Our Principal Secretary of Estate." His Coadjutor, John Herbert, was described as one of "Our Secretaries of Estate." In the next reign the title became generally adopted in its more modern term of "Secretary of State."

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, who was styled "Secretary of State for the Colonies," but this appointment was abolished in 1782 (Act 22 Geo. III. c. 82).

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Turkey, &c.

In the 22nd year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms "Northern" and "Southern" were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the "Home" and "Foreign" Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 34th year of the reign of George III, July 11, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the Colonial Department was separated from the War Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, v.z., for the Home, Foreign, War, Colonial, and India Departments.

(6.) ORDER IN COUNCIL—(UPPER DIVISION). August 15, 1890.

WHEREAS by Her Majesty's Orders in Council dated the 4th June, 1870, and the 19th August, 1871, rules were laid down for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments:

And whereas under the said Orders in Council, or by Orders and Regulations subsequent thereto, permanent officers of different rank in the Civil Service have been appointed according to different tests applied by the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas one section of the said Civil Service has been established and organised on a uniform basis by successive measures, of which the latest is Her Majesty's Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, whereby the constitution of the Second Division of the Civil Service is fixed and defined:

And whereas it appears from certain recent reports made by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., and others, appointed by Her Majesty to be Royal Commissioners for inquiring into various questions connected with the organisation of the Civil Departments of the State, that further regulations are required in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall apply to all permanent officers in the Civil Service drawing salaries, or placed on scales of salary, in excess of those of the Second Division as constituted by the Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890.

Provided that no person promoted to a higher post shall in any case suffer immediate pecuniary loss by such promotion.

5. Promotion of officers from one class to another shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject the following conditions, viz.:—

(2.) If the number of days during which any officer in any year is absent without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under Clause 7 of this Order.

(3.) Continuous sick leave on full salary shall not be ) Commuous sick leave on this salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may, at his discretion, grant further leave, with salary at half the ordinary rate for any period not exceeding six months. (4.) Cases of repeated but not continuous sick leave, amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months, during any period of eighteen months, shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick leave.

Retirement shall be compulsory for every officer on attaining sixty-five years of age. But in special cases, the Commissioners of the Treasury may, at the instance of a department, extend an officer's employment for a further period, in no case exceeding five years, on being satisfied that such officer's retirement at sixty-five would be detrimental to the interests of the Public Service.

WHEREAS by Orders made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council on 12th February, 1876, and the 17th November, 1888, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased to make regulations respecting the Lower (now Second) Division of Her Majesty's Civil Service:

And whereas by subsequent Orders in Council, of which the latest is that of the 21st March, 1890, the two first-mentioned Orders in Council have been amended and, as regards some of their provisions, repealed:

And whereas it is expedient wholly to repeal the said Orders in Council of the 12th February, 1876, and 17th November, 1888, and to re-enact, with amendments, such of their provisions as are now in force:

And whereas it appears desirable to make certain further regulations applicable to all persons in the established Civil Service of the State:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :-

PART I .- SECOND DIVISION.

1. On and after the date of this Order the said Orders in Council of 12th February, 1876, and 17th November, 1888, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and this Order shall be substituted for them.

2. The Second Division of the Civil Service constituted by the said Order in Council of 12th February, 1876, as amended by the said Order in Council of 21st March, 1890, shall continue and shall consist of Clerks engaged to serve in any department of the Civil Service to which they may from time to time be appointed or transferred.

3. No department of the Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh without provision being made that such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by Members of the Second Division or other officers of a rank below that Division.

4. No vacancies shall be filled nor any new appointments made in any department, except by appointing Clerks of the Second Division, or other officers of a rank below that Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of officers serving in such department with salaries higher than those of the Second Division will not be excessive.

5. The Civil Service Commissioners shall at fixed intervals, or whenever they may, with the previous approval of the Treasury, decide it to be necessary, held competitive examinations for Clerkships of the Second Division in such subjects, and under such regulations as to limits of age and otherwise, as the Civil Service Com-missioners, with the approval of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe.

6. A list of the successful competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to the prescribed number, if so many are found by the Civil Service Commissioners to be qualified for appointments in the Second Division.

7. From the list made out as aforesaid, the Civil Service Commissioners, on the application of departments having vacancies, may assign, on probation, the requisite Clerks, whether for permanent or temporary duty. Assignments shall, as a general rule, be made by the Civil Service Commissioners according to the order of the names on the list; but they may assign any successful competitor who has shown special qualifications in any particular subject included in the scheme of examination, if special applica-tion for a Clerk so qualified be made by any department; provided that if a successful competitor has at the date of the competition served as a Boy Copyist, Boy Clerk, or Abstractor, for not less than six full months in a department, he may, on the application of the head of that department, be specially assigned to it.

8. Under conditions to be settled by the Civil Service Commissioners and the Treasury, successful competitors will be allowed, within reasonable limits and when convenient, to select the departments in which they may wish to serve; but the requirements of the public service will take precedence of all other considerations, and any successful competitor refusing to serve in the department to which he is assigned will be finally removed from the

9. On a successful competitor being assigned to a situation in a public office, his name shall be removed from the list.

10. A Clerk shall be regarded as accepted by a department if he has served twelve months in it, and a record has been made by the head of the department that his service has been approved.

A Clerk shall not, except for grave misconduct, be rejected on probation till he has served for at least three months in the department to which he has been assigned.

If a Clerk is rejected on probation by the department to which he has been assigned, the department shall report to the Civil Service Commissioners the reasons for his rejection: and the Commissioners shall thereupon assign another Clerk in his room, and shall decide whether the rejected Clerk shall be discharged as unfit for the service generally, or whether he shall be re-assigned for duty in another department.

In the event of a rejected Clerk being re-assigned as aforesaid, the Civil Service Commissioners shall decide whether his previous service should be reckoned towards increment of salary. If they decide that his service should not be so reckoned, the fact shall be notified by the Commissioners to the Comptroller and Auditor General.

11. No person appointed to the Second Division on the ground that it was desirable in the interest of the public service to retain him in any particular department shall be made redundant without the consent of the Civil Service Commissioners and the approval of the Treasury. The same consent and approval shall be necessary, except in the case of redundancy, before any person who has become a Clerk of the Second Division after competitive examination or by promotion may be transferred to another department.

Except as aforesaid all redundant clerks may be transferred without reference to their age or the amount of salary due to them.

12. A Clerk shall not be promoted from the Second to the Higher Division of the Service, or to posts, not classified as Higher Division, but carrying a maximum salary exceeding five hundred pounds a year, or leading in the ordinary course of promotion to posts of which the maximum salary exceeds five hundred pounds a year, without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than eight years' service, upon a special recommendation from the head of the department, and with the assent of the Treasury; and every such promotion, including such recommendation, certificate, and assent, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall take effect from and after the date of such publication.

Clause 12 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, is hereby repealed.

13. Boy Clerks already serving shall not be retained as such in any department after completing their twentieth year. No Boy Clerks shall be in future appointed.

Boy Clerks now serving may, after one year of good service, certified in writing by the Heads of their Departments to the Civil Service Commissioners, compete among themselves, at any examination for Clerkships of the Second Division held under this Order, for so many Clerkships as shall not exceed one fourth of the number of Boy Clerks competing among themselves at that examination. The number of Clerkships reserved for such Limited Competition shall be reckoned as part of the prescribed number referred to in Clause 6 of the present Order.

Separate lists shall be made out of the competitors successful in the Limited Competition, and assignments to Clerkships of the Second Division shall (subject to clause 7 of this Order) be made alternately from these lists and from the lists of competitors successful in the Open Competition so far as is possible consistently with the allowance of selection under Clause 8 of the present

14. Below the Second Division persons may be employed for copying, routine work under direct supervision, or work inferior to that of Clerks of the Second Division, in accordance with regulations to be from time to time framed by the Civil Service Commissioners and approved by the Treasury, and at rates of pay from time to time prescribed by the Treasury.

15. A permanent Civil Servant of a rank below the Second Division may be appointed to that Division on the ground of special merit with a certificate from the Civil ground of special ment with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners under Clause 7 of the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870. But such certificate shall only be granted exceptionally after not less than six years' established service, upon a recommendation from the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury. Whenever such an appointment is made, the Treasury may, notwithstanding anything in Clause 3 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, allow the person appointed to enter the scale of the division at such salary as they shall think fit, not being higher than that which he was receiving at the date of his said appointment; and he shall be allowed the same amount of annual holiday as though his previous established service had been in the Second Division. In the case of a person so appointed before the date of this Order, the Treasury may, if they think fit, increase the salary of which he is now in receipt to an amount not exceeding that of which he would have been in receipt if this Order had been in operation at the date of his appointment.

16. Clause 3 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March,

1890, shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words "not less than," were inserted after the words "for a daily attendance of" and before the words

" seven hours.

17. Clause 5 of the said Order in Council of the 21st March, 1890, shall be read as if the word "approved" were substituted for the words "in all respects satisfactory" in the first paragraph of the clause.

PART II .- GENERAL.

18. The provisions of Clause 10 of the Order in Council of the 15th August, 1890, as to retirement on account of age shall, in future, apply to all persons in the established Civil Service of the State, but, in the case of persons to whom those provisions have not heretofore been considered the state of applicable, they shall take effect after the expiration of one year from the date of this Order.

19. When a person has been selected for appointment to an office in any department of the Civil Service, and the state of business in that department makes it necessary that he should enter upon his duties before the issue to him of a certificate by the Civil Service Commissioners, the Treasury may, if they think proper direct that his salary shall be payable from the date on which he commences the regular discharge of his duties, provided that they are satisfied that the delay in the issue of the certificate is owing to causes wholly beyond his control. If such person is on a scale of salary, the first incremental period of such scale shall be reckoned from the date on which his salary became payable, provided that he sball in the meanwhile have obtained a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners.

20. An annual increment of salary shall not be allowed to any person in the established Civil Service of the State without a certificate from the immediate superior of such person, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such person's conduct has during the year immediately preceding the date of such certificate been approved.

Provided that, if, at the date when the increment would in ordinary course become due, the Head of the Department is unable to give the certificate, he (the said Head) may withhold the same until the officer shall have completed a continuous period of twelve months' approved service; and the increment shall thereupon become payable from the date of such certificate. If the officer's conduct shall thereafter continue satisfactory, the Head of the Department may, after such interval as he shall consider sufficient, but subject to the approval of the Treasury, increase the salary to an amount not exceeding that at which it would have stood if no increment had been withheld. Every such increase shall be reported to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

21. Paragraph 3 of the Order in Council of 22nd March, 1879, shall be read as if the words "or certificated by the said Commissioners under Clause 7 of the Order in Council of 4th June, 1870" were inserted immediately tefore the words "as those Commissioners."

22. All appointments and promotions with respect to which certificates have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners, and all assignments and transfers of Second Division Clerks shall continue to be published by the Civil Service Commissioners in the number of the London Gazette first issued in each month.

ORDER IN COUNCIL RESPECTING CIVIL SERVANTS WHO MAY BE CANDIDATES FOR SEATS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. November 29, 1884.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Minute by the Commissioners of the Treasury, dated the 12th instant, in the words following, viz.:—

"The First Lord informs the Board that questions have been asked in the House of Commons whether persons serving in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State may, at the same time, announce themselves publickly as Candidates for seats in that House, and may issue political addresses, and speak at political meetings in furtherance of their election.

"The First Lord represents to the Board the grave importance of these questions, and that it is expedient to settle them as regards the establishment of the Treasury, by an express Minute of such a general character as to regulate, without further reference to the Board, whatever particular cases of the kind may arise.

"The First Lord expresses to the Board his own strong sense of the public injury which must be the consequence of any departure from the conditions which, under Parliamentary Government, render a Permanent Civil Service possible, and he points out that, among those conditions, the essential one is that the members of such a service should remain free to serve the Government of the day, without necessarily exposing themselves to public charges of inconsistency or insincerity.

"The First Lord points out that, whatever may be the theoretical difficulty of defining the degree of reserve which these conditions impose upon Civil Servants, it has been solved in practice, as is proved by the rarity of charges of partisanship against members of their body, so that the Board of Treasury is called upon to refer to an unwritten. but operative, law, rather than to declare a new one.

"My Lords find that, as matter of fact, the usage of the Public Departments has been for a Civil Servant, seeking a seat in the House of Commons, to resign his office as soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner announces himself a candidate.
"My Lords consider that this usage should be binding and They declare it to be so in the Treasury, and in all other Departments which depend upon the Treasury for the regulation of their discipline.

"The First Lord further states that Her Majesty's Government is agreed upon the substance of his observations to the Board, and that he proposes to cause the result of them to be embodied in an Order to be submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, which, when passed will be binding on the entire Permanent Civil Service of the State.

Her Majesty, having taken the said Minute into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof as applicable generally to Her Majesty's Civil Establishments; and the Chief Authorities of the said Establishments are to take the necessary steps herein accordingly, in respect of all persons serving within such Establishments in an established capacity in the Permanent Civil Service of the State.

submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case any allowance to such parties that he may consider just and reasonable.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

A First-class Junior Clerk who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service will receive a Commission as Second Secretary; a Second Class Junior Clerk will similarly receive a Commission as Third Secretary.

Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will in like manner receive Acting Commissions as Second or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine.

Annual Reports on Conduct of Junior Secretarics and Attachés.

XV. Heads of Missions will be required to report annually, on the 1st of January in each year to the Secretary of State the mode in which, during so much of the preceding year as they shall have served in such Mission, each Second and Third Secretary and Attaché in his Mission has discharged his public duty, and such reports will be duly considered before any promotion or increase of pay is accorded to the persons to whom they apply. These reports will be considered to be strictly confidential, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to determine as to extenuating circumstances when they are unfavourable.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

XVI. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the Queen to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it, and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions. Retirement at the age of 70.

XVII. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years; and at the expiration of five years the question of reappointment, though in that case not involving fresh credentials, or of transfer to another Mission, shall be open for consideration. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

XVIII. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date as heretofore from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of onehalf of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. Under the Regulation as now amended, the time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Secretary of the Mission may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be, at Embassies at the rate of 3t. a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 21. a-day.*

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service. No. tice to be given of Addresses of Persons on Leave of Absence, and in the case of Junior Members of intended departure for their posts.

XIX. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Doorkeeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

XX. Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interptruion of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

Circular of November 6, 1860.

XXI. It being very desirable that the Members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service should clearly understand the duties respectively assigned to them, a copy of the Circular instruction on this subject, addressed to the Heads of Missions by Lord John Russell on the 6th November, 1860, is annexed to these Regulations, and the Secretary of State requests that the rules therein laid down may be duly observed.

Foreign Office, March 10, 1891.

* At the Missions of Berne, Munich, and Beigrade, the allowance remains at the rate of 1l. a-day. allowance at Bucharest and Tangier is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post, and at Cairo at the rate of 1,000/ a year.

CIRCULAR TO THE HEADS OF MISSIONS DATED NOVEMBER 6, 1860.

(Annex to Diplomatic Regulations of March 10, 1891. In force, January, 1900.)

My Lord, Foreign Office, November 6, 1860. Sir,—I have reason to apprehend that some misconception has prevailed in the minds of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as to the nature of the relations between them and their Secretaries and Attachés, and that they have consequently, in many cases, overlooked the fact that the Secretaries and Attaches are public servants appointed by the Secretary of State to perform specific public duties.

It is to be borne in mind that one of the objects for which Secretaries and Attachés are appointed to Embassies and Missions is, that they may be trained up in the junior branches of the Diplomatic Service, and thereby become qualified for filling afterwards higher and more important situations; but this training they cannot receive unless they are employed, according to their several Commissions, in the general business of the Embassy or Mission.

It follows that the Chiefs of Missions should not defeat the above-mentioned purpose by entrusting, at their own discretion, and with reference to their own personal convenience, the management and execution of the public business of their Chanceries to persons out of the regular order. Each member of an Embassy or Mission, whether Secretary, Attaché, or Keeper of the Archives, should hold in the Chancery the position to which he is entitled by office or seniority, and to which he is named by the of onice or semiority, and to which he is named by the Secretary of State; and in no case should a junior be arbitrarily preferred to a senior, nor an Attaché to a Secretary, nor a Keeper of the Archives to an Attaché.

A disregard of these principles not only tends to defeat the objects for which the Diplomatic Service is constituted, but is, moreover, among the junior members of that service, a fruitful source of jealousy and disunion.

On these grounds I have thought it expedient, with Her Majesty's approbation, to lay down certain fixed Rules for the regulation of Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations, in which the nature and amount of the business to be transacted renders an adherence to fixed Rules peculiarly important; and I am convinced that if those Rules are strictly attended to, the general interests of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, both present and prospective, will be greatly advanced, and the convenience and comfort of the Chiefs and subordinate members of the service will be essentially promoted.

The principle on which the Rules which I now proceed to lay down are founded is to apply, as far as possible, to Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad the system on which the business of the Foreign Office is carried on at

In the Foreign Office the Under Secretaries of State, the Senior and Assistant and Junior Clerks, have their respective duties to perform, and they do perform them without clashing or interfering with each other.

In like manner Her Majesty's Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, the Senior and Junior Paid Attachés, and the Unpaid Attachés, have in Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations their regular and appointed positions and duties; and it is only necessary to bear this analogy in mind, and to carry it out in practice, in order to ensure the efficient and harmonious working of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad.

The manner in which this principle is to be applied will readily occur to such of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as are conversant with the working of the system in the Foreign Office; but I consider it desirable to explain its application in detail.

Accordingly, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation must be deemed to hold, as regards the Chief of the Mission, the same position which an Under Secretary of State holds as regards the Secretary of State, and therefore the whole public business of the Embassy or Mission should pass through his hands, and, subject to the orders of the Chief, should be carried on under his immediate superintendence.

The public and official despatches and papers will, if not opened by the Ambassador or Minister himself upon their arrival, reach him through the Secretary of Embassy or Legation: and the directions of the Chief in regard to all matters of public business will pass through the Secretary, and be executed under his superintendence and control. The principle on which this regulation is founded scarcely needs an explanation, for it is obvious that the public interests require that the Secretary, who may at any moment, in consequence of the absence of the Chief be called upon to conduct the public business on his own responsibility, should be kept fully informed as to the course of those matters with which he may have to

In the occasional or accidental absence of the Secretary from the residence of the Mission, or from the Chancery, the Senior Attaché in attendance will undertake his duties, so that no inconvenience or delay need arise in the transaction of the public business.

As regards the general duties of Attachés, the Senior will, in the Chancery, occupy the position which a Senior Clerk occupies in the Foreign Office. He will be responsible for the correct performance of the details of the Chancery work; he will assign to the other Attaches their respective portions of it; he will have the general custody of the Cyphers and Decyphers; and he will be responsible for keeping the accounts of the Extraordinary Expenditure, and for submitting them to the Chief of the Embassy or Mission for approval and transmission to England as soon as possible after the expiration of each angiand as soon as possible after the expiration of each quarter. Moreover, as stated in my Circular despatch of the 10th February last the Senior Attaché for the time being will, if no other person has, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, been appointed for that special duty, have the custody of the Archives. He will be held responsible for their being kept in proper order; for the correspondence being regularly registered; and for the letters and drafts being properly docketed and filled up letters and drafts being properly docketed and filled up before they are consigned to the Archives.

The position and duties of the Keeper of Archives in those Embassies or Missions to which such an officer is attached will correspond with those of the Librarian of the Foreign Office, though his duties in regard to the correspondence will commence at an earlier period than that of that officer. Those duties will be to keep the papers, whether bound or unbound, in good order, so that they may be at any time easily accessible; to see that the papers are at stated intervals bound in volumes; and to make references and Memoranda for the imformation of the Ambassador or Minister, and for the general requirements of the Chancery.

The order of precedence among the Junior members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service will thus be: -

Secretary of Embassy or Legation:

Paid Attachés; Unpaid Attachés:

Keeper of Archives; and Translator, where a Translator is appointed with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

The foregoing Regulations apply exclusively to the transaction of Public and Official business, and are not intended in any way to interfere with the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister as to the arrangements he may make in regard to his private correspondence. I have only to observe on this point, that if the Ambassador or Minister sees occasion to employ one of the Attachés as his Private Secretary, the manner in which such Attaché should be employed in the transaction of the public business of the Embassy or Mission is not to be affected thereby, but is to continue to be governed by the Rules which I have laid down, and must remain in entire subordination to, and under the control of, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation, and of the Attachés holding a superior position to him in the Chancery.

The Secretary of Embassy or Legation, the First Attaché, and the Keeper of the Archives, should be under no restriction as to the hours at which the Chancery shall be open to them, even if any such restriction is habitually placed on other members of the Mission; and they should each have keys of the presses or boxes in which the Archives and Public Papers are kept.

No person must be employed in the transaction of the public Jusiness except those who may be actually members of the Embassy or Legation, or whose employment may be specifically sanctioned for a limited period by the Secretary of State.

I have no doubt that a strict adherence to the Rules I have thus laid down will tend to the regular dispatch of public business, and to the maintenance of harmony among the different members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service; while it will also be advantageous to the Chiefs of Missions. It is not my intention by these Regulations to prescribe to those Chiefs any obligation of consulting or of being guided by the opinion of any of the subordinate members of their Mission. On those Chiefs rests the responsibility of the decisions they may come to, and of any course they may determine to pursue, and with them, therefore, must also rest the free choice of the means for arriving at their decisions.

My object in the present communication is to provide that those persons who are appointed by the Secretary of State to definite situations and ranks in Her Majesty's Embassies and Missions shall be employed in the transaction of the public business of such Embassies and Missions in accordance with the purposes for which their appointments have been created.

CONSULAR ASSISTANTS (CHINA, JAPAN, AND SIAM).

LAW EXAMINATION.

With the view of enabling Assistants in the Consular Service of China and Japan, and Siam, to study Law in this country in order-

(a.) To qualify themselves in the special branches of Law which would be useful to them in their Consular duties; and the usual furlough of one year after five years' service will he extended to two years in the case of any Assistant who may, on this ground, apply for such extension, provided that the Minister under whom he may have been serving shall recommend the application, and shall express his opinion that the ability, industry, and general good conduct exhibited by the officer in the past five years warrant the expectation that he will turn to good account whatever opportunities of studying Law may be afforded to him.

(h.) To be ultimately called to the Bar;

2. Assistants to whom the Minister has recommended that extended leave shall be granted must report them-selves, on their arrival in England, to the Civil Service Commissioners, by whom their legal studies under head (a) will be directed, and by whom their progress in such studies will from time to time be tested by examination.

3. These examinations will, in ordinary circumstances, be held twice in each year of furlough, at intervals, as nearly as may be, of six months, and will be partly by questions on paper and partly riva voce.

4. The grant of a second year's leave of absence will not be confirmed unless the Civil Service Commissioners shall certify that the Assistant's progress during the previous year has been satisfactory to them, and such leave may at any time be terminated if the Civil Service Commissioners shall report that he appears to be neglecting the prescribed studies.

5. The subjects of examination by the Civil Service

Commissioners will consist of two branches:

(1.) Notes of Cases and Proceedings in Courts of Law or before police magistrates;

(2.) Certain special or prescribed subjects.

1.—Notes of Cases.

These must be obtained by personal attendance in ourt. They should consist of short notes of the main points in the evidence, arguments of counsel, and opinion of judge or magistrate in each case. Short references should be made, in the form of marginal notes to the Statutes, reported decisions, or other authorities governing or affecting any point in the case.

Such authorities should, before the reports are sent in be carefully consulted in some legal library.

2.—Special or prescribed Subjects. These will consist of the following:—

(i.) Law of Evidence.(ii.) Selected portions of the Criminal Law.

(iii.) Elements of the Law of Contract. (iv.) Law relating to merchant shipping, contracts of affreightment, and marine insurance.

7. THE BEARER OF EVERY PASSPORT GRANTED BY THE FOREIGN OFFICE MUST SIGN HIS PASSPORT AS SOON AS HE RECEIVES IT; WITHOUT SUCH SIGNATURE EITHER THE visa MAY BE REFUSED, OR THE VALIDITY OF THE PASSPORT QUESTIONED ABROAD.

8. Travellers who intend to visit the Russian Empire, the Turkish Dominions, or the Kingdom of Roumania, in the course of their travels, must not leave the United Kingdom without having had their passports vises at the Russian Consulate-General in London, 17, Great Winchester-street, E.C.; at the Consulate-General of the Sublime Porte, 29, Mincing Lane, E.C.; at the Roumanian Consulate-General, 68, Basinghall-street, E.C., respectively, or at one of the other Consulates of Russia, Turkey, or Roumania in the United Kingdom. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country, resident in the United Kingdom, except as an additional precaution, which is recommended in the case of passports of old date.

N.B.—Although British subjects are now free to enter Belgium, France, Holland, Italy, Denmark, Sweden and Norway, without passports, and the rules respecting passports have been virtually relaxed in other countries, nevertheless, British subjects travelling abroad are advised to furnish themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligator; they are found to be useful as affording a ready means of identification, e.g. in claiming letters at a poste restante. British subjects intending to resude in Germany or in Switzerland should provide themselves with passports.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, January 1900.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

The sacerdotal despotism of Egypt, though deadening for the intellect, was at least penetrated by religious ideas; it cannot have been so devoid of everything that avails to comfort or elevate the human spirit as was the royal despotism of Assyria.

royal despotism of Assyria.

Both these benumbing influences had been escaped by the Phenicians, though their government was probably monarchical, and their priesthoods, probably hereditary, had great influence. In their career as the earliest traders and colonizers of the Mediterranean,—carrying the wares of the East to other lands, and planting factories or trading settlements where they went,—the Phænicians showed a spirit of free enterprise unlike any that had yet appeared in the world. But its distinctive Phoenicians showed a spirit of free enterprise unlike any that had yet appeared in the world. But its distinctive character was commercial. It was primarily associated with the pursuit of gain; it aimed at extended dominion as a means to the extension of trade. Phoenicians enlarged the boundaries of geographical knowledge; but that was merely an incident of voyages inspired by other motives than the spirit of exploration. It does not appear that the Phoenicians developed any intellectual activities beyond those which were required in the manufacturer, the merchant, and the adventurous ploneer of commerce. the merchant, and the adventurous pioneer of commerce. Though often regarded by the ancients as great inventors, the Phoenicians do not seem to have possessed much real elaim to originality. Their alphabet was probably derived from the Egyptian. The invention of arithmetic, and of rrom the Egyptian. The invention of artiminet, and on systematic weights and measures, must be ascribed to the Babylonians. Glass-making, in which the Phœnicians excelled, was an art borrowed from Egypt. Their skill in embroidery, in purple-dyeing, was again a double debt to Babylon. In their religion, the central point was the worship of the Sun, whose spouse was sometimes represented as the Earth, sometimes as the moon-goddess, the mother of the Tyrian sun-god. They refrained from portraying their gods under human forms, but represented them either by symbolic pillars, or by images not of the human type.

Les joueurs d'orgues de Barbarie, de clarinettes ou de cornemuses, ceux mêmes de vielles, les musiciens ambulants, enfin, croyez vous qu'ils soient inutiles à la société? Non, vraiment. existence, ne sèment-ils point partout la joie? Nous devons de la reconnaissance à ces porteurs d'harmonie. A peine sont-ils arrivés dans un village et ont-ils fait retenter leurs premiers accords, que choses et gens semblent se réveiller dans une vie nouvelle. Battant dans leurs petites mains en signe d'allégresse, ce sont d'abord les enfants qui accourent, s'amassent et leur font cortège, tandis que, des deux côtés de la rue, les portes, les fenêtres s'ouvrent, encadrant femmes et jounes filles, la plupart joyeuses, quelques-unes attendries, selon leur tempérament. Les scieurs de long arrêtent la scie, le forgeron dépose son marteau, le menuisier sa varlope et la civèlre demeure immobile entre les deux porteurs qui écoutent. Ainsi qu'un courant électrique, la jole a effieuré, réjoui tous les fronts. Que de peines calmées, de souffrances un instant guéries! des ennemis réconciliés peut-être! Qui donc, depuis nos revers surtout, marchanderait dans ces moments son dévouement à la patrie? Quelles fières espérances, quelles généreuses résolutions naissent dans tous les cœurs! Voyez, la musique a passé; on s'aborde: il semble qu'il n'y ait plus au monde que de bons citoyens et des amis! Ce fluide de paix fraternelle, d'enthoustasme et d'amour, est-ce donc rien? Cependant au bout de l'année, ces pauvres gens rentrent dans leur chaumière, quand il leur en reste une, avec quel bénéragés en demi-cercle sous le tilleul, et ils commencent à jouer leur valse la plus joyeuse, non sans jeter sous l'avernt des regards de connaissance.

Le soleil est tout au haut du ciel, si haut que les grandes haies ne donnent plus d'ombre. Les troupeaux haletants se sont couchés dans l'herbe, au milieu du pré, et, sous la chaleur ardente, ils dorment d'un sommell de plomb. Les oiseaux, blottis sous les fauilles, attendent que la grande heure, l'heure solennelle de midi, soit passée. A perte de vue, les moissons sommeillent; à peine une onde de vent passe-t-elle sur les épis couleur d'or mat, en moirant d'un ton plus clair la nappe immense.

C'est sur la terre l'heure du repos pour tous ceux qui, dès le lever du jour, ont travaillé, la sueur montant à leurs fronts à mesure que le soleil montait dans le ciel. Ils se reposent maintenant et tout repose avec eux. Seules, la cigale et l'alouette agitent leurs ailes infatigables, l'une dans le stilon, l'autre dans l'azur, et pendant ces heures lourdes chantent la vie, la vie qui ne dort jamais. La mer dort là-bas, douce, bleue, sans une ride; une voile rousse se fait voir, mais si loin, qu'elle semble immobile. Les grandes mauves aux ailes blanches dorment dans le creux des rochers, la falaise gazonneuse brille au soleil comme une cuirasse d'émeraude, les panaches des hautes fougères s'inclinent de temps en temps et montrent leurs dessous plus clairs au passage de quelque animal farouche. Un cri se fait entendre, puis le silence et l'immobilité recommencent, pendant que tout en bas des rochers la frange d'écume blanche qui joue et s'agite, éternellement inquète, autour des noirs écueils, répête à la terre somnolente que, pas plus que la vie elle-même, l'océan ne dort jamais. Ecrasés sous la chaleur pénétrante, les moissonneurs se sont endormis à l'abri de la haute meule; plus loin, sous le parasol grêle d'un frêne, les femmes se sont rapprochées pour profiter de toute l'ombre et dorment d'un sommeil moins lourd.

It was early noon, and the forum was crowded alike with the busy and the idle. As at Paris at this day, so at that time in the cities of Italy, men lived almost wholly out of doors: the public buildings, the forum, the porticoes, the baths, the temples themselves, might be considered their real homes; it was no wonder that they decorated so gorgeously these favourite places of resortethey felt for them a sort of domestic affection as well as a public pride. And animated was indeed the aspect of the forum of Pompeii at that time! Along its broad pavement, composed of large flags of marble, were assembled various groups, conversing in that energetic fashion which appropriates a gesture to every word, and which is still the characteristic of the people of the south. Here in seven stalls on one side of the colonnade sat the money-changers with their glittering heaps before them, and merchants and seamen in various costumes crowding round their stalls. On one side, several men in long togas were seen bustling rapidly up to a stately edifice where the magistrates administered justice; these were the lawyers, active, chattering, joking and punning, as you may find them this day in Westminster. In the centre of the space, pedestals supported various statues, of which the most remarkable was the stately form of Cicero. Around the cours ran a regular and symmetrical colonnade of Doric architecture; and there several, whose business drew them early to the place, were taking the slight morning repast which made an Italian breakfast, talking vehemently on the earthquake of the preceding night, as they dipped pieces of bread in their cups of Death was very busy about this time with men whose names had made deep mark on history or letters. Lord Lytton, the brilliant novelist, the successful dramatist, the composer of marvellous parliamentary speeches, died on January 18, 1873. Dr. Livingstone, the famous missionary and explorer, had hardly been discovered among the living by the enterprise and energy of Mr. Stanley when the world learned that he was dead. So many false reports of his death had been sent about addifferent times that the statement now was received with incredulity. The truth had to be confirmed on testimony beyond dispute before England would accept the fact that the long career of devotion to the one pursuit was over, and that Africa had had another victim. John sylrity gone "was the world of all men. A lofter and purer soul, more truly devoted to the quest of the truth, had not mingled in the worldly affairs of our time. His influence over the thought and culture of his day was immense. Most of Mr. Mill's writings may safely be regarded as the possession of all the future, and he has left an example of candour in investigation and fearless moral purpose in action such as might well leaven even

Passage for Extempore Translation (1).

[The Examiner read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write; the second time slowly, giving them time to write down their English translation of it.]

Le système protecteur est une machine à vapeur sans soupape de sûreté, s'îl n'a pas pour correctif et pour auxiliaire une saine et sérieuse politique coloniale. La pléthore des capitaux engagés dans l'industrie ne tend pas seulement à diminuer les profits du capital, elle arrête la hausse des salaires, qui est pourtant la loi naturelle et bienfaisante des sociétés modernes. Et ce n'est pas la une loi abstraite, mais un phénomène fait de chair et d'os, de passion et de volonté, qui se remue, se plaint, se défend. La paix sociale est, dans l'âge industriel de l'humanité, une question de débouchés. La criss économique qui a si lourdement pesé sur l'Europe laborieuse depuis 1876, el malaise qui s'en est suivi, et dont des gréves frêquentes, longues, malavisées souvent, mais toujours redoutables, sont le plus douloureux symptôme, a coincidé en France, en Allemagne, en Angleterre même avec une réduction notable et persistante du chiffre des exportations. L'Europe peut être considérée comme une maison de commerce qui voit depuis un certain nombre d'années décroître son chiffre d'affaires. La consommation européenne est saturée, il faut faire surgir des autres parties du globe de nouvelles couches de consommateurs, sous peine de mettre la société moderne en faillite et de préparer pour l'aurore du vingtième siècle une liquidation sociale par voie de cataclysme, dont on ne saurait calculer les consèquences.

Passage for Extempore Translation (2).

[The Superintendent of the examination read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write; the second time slovely, giving them time to write down their French translation of it.]

The spirit of self-help, as exhibited in the energetic action of individuals, has in all times been a marked feature in the English character, and furnishes the true measure of our power as a nation. Rising above the heads of the mass, there have always been a series of individuals distinguished beyond others, who have commanded the public homage. But our progress has been owing also to multitudes of smaller and unknown men. Though only the generals' names may be remembered in the history of any great campaign, it has been mainly through the individual valour and heroism of the privates that victories have been won. And life, too, is "a soldiers' battle"; men in the ranks having at all times been amongst the greatest of workers. Many are the lives of men unwritten, which have nevertheless as powerfully influenced civilization and progress as the more fortunate Great whose names are recorded in biography. Even the humblest person, who sets before his fellows an example of industry, sobriety, and upright honesty of purpose in life, has a present as well as a future influence upon the well-being of his country; for his life and character pass unconsciously into the lives of others, and propagate good example for all time to come.

The West Indies were for some time the centre of our colonial interest, especially after they had been secured to us by Rodney's great naval victory over the French in the West Indies in 1782, and they rapidly became a source of increasing wealth till, at the close of the last century, the West Indian influence in the City of London and in Bristol became a factor of considerable commercial importance. The chief islands of the various groups which form the West Indies are, commercially speaking, Jamaica, Trinidad, and Barbadoes, to which we may add the continental settlement of British Guiana. Their development continued for many years to be closely identified with the sugar industry, but a severe blow was dealt to their prosperity by the invention of beet sugar and the abolition of slavery. The use of beet sugar in Europe, encouraged as it has been by bounties given by European Governments to the manufacturers and growers of beetroot, has extended enormously within the last fifty years. Only 95,000 tons of beet sugar were produced in 1849 as compared with 3,630,000 tons in 1890, in which last year it considerably exceeded the amount of cane sugar manufactured. Thus the West Indies, which had practically a monopoly of the sugar supply of Europe, now found this monopoly entirely ruined, while the change in its labour system has been—to put it mildly—by no means so beneficial as the promoters of the anti-slavery agitation fondly hoped. Hence our West Indian colonies are now in a somewhat critical position.

The influence of labour organisations upon strikes has been less marked in Germany than in many other counties, owing to the early failure of the trade unions in this respect and the disabilities which from 1878 to 1890 attached to the Socialist organisations. Indeed the slow progress of trude unionism in Germany is attributed by Herr Schmoele in a large measure to the reluctance of the unions to organise strikes with a view to obtaining better conditions of labour. According to the recent factory inspectors' reports the influence of organisations upon strikes in Germany shows itself most plainly in one of two forms, either the attempt to force employers to engage workmen only through a labour registry controlled by the men themselves, or, according to the Dresden factory inspector, the prevalence of a spirit of discontent and of hostility to particular firms, which in the last resort can be traced to the misrepresentations of the Social Democrats. Further, the demand for a minimum wage, already mentioned as a frequent cause of strikes, is in itself an article in the Sociallst programme, and the factory inspector for the Schleswig district remarks in his report for 1858 that he has invariably found this demand to proceed from the younger and inferior workmen, upon whom the Social Democrats have the greatest hold.

The object of the state is (as far as may be) the happiness of the whole. Whatever makes multitudes of men utterly miserable can never answer that object; indeed it contramiserante can never answer that copies, indeed to decis it wholly and entirely; and the happiness or misery of mankind, estimated by their feelings and sentiments, and not by any theories of their rights is, and ought to be, the standard for the conduct of legislators towards the people. This naturally and necessarily conducts us to the peculiar and characteristic situation of a people, and to a knowledge of their opinions, prejudices, habits, and all the circumstances that diversify and colour life. The first question a good statesman would ask himself, therefore, would be, how and in what circumstances do you find the society, and he would then act upon them. interest, and it is the duty, and because it is the interest and the duty, it is the right of government to attend much to opinions; because, as opinions soon combine with passions, even when they do not produce them, they have much influence on actions. Factions are formed upon opinions; which factions become in effect bodies corporate in the state;—nay, factions generate opinions in order to become a centre of union, and to furnish watchwords to parties; and this may make it expedient for government to forbid things in themselves innocent and neutral.

Verum sit sane, ut voltis, deus effigies hominis et imago: quod eius est domicilium? quae sedes? qui locus? quae deinde actio vitae? quibus rebus, id quod voltis, beatus est? utatur enim suis bonis oportet et fruatur qui beatus est? utatur enim suis bonis oportet et fruatur qui beatus est. nam locus quidem iis etiam naturis, quae sine animis sunt, suus est cuique proprius, ut terra infimum teneat, hanc inundet aqua, superior aetheri, ignibus altissima ora reddatur. bestiarum autem terrenae sunt aliae, partim aquatiles, aliae quasi ancipites, in utraque sede viventes; sunt quaedem etiam, quae in igne nasci putentur adpareantque in ardentibus fornacibus saepe volitantes. quaero igitur vester deus primum ubi habitet; deinde quae causa eum loco moveat, si modo movetur aliquando; porro, cum hoc proprium sit animantium, ut aliquid adpetant; ad quam denique rem motu mentis ac ratione utatur; postremo, quo modo beatus sit, quo modo aeturnus. quicquid enim horum attigeris ulcus est: ita male instituta ratio exitum reperire non potest.

Liberty in itself is but the power of doing what we please; a power which for all human beings has its natural limits. We may easily indeed have too much or too little of it; we can only have it in degree, but without some degree of it we cannot exist.

It is very fine, perhaps not very difficult, to do every now and then some noble or generous act. But what is wanted of us is to do no wrong ones. It may be, for instance, in many eyes a laudable thing to amass a colossal fortune by acts not in all cases of quite unimpeachable integrity and then to expend it in magnificent benevolence. But the really good thing is not to make the fortune. Thorough honesty and plain undertaining integrity—these are our real needs; on these substructions only can the fabric of individual or national well-being safely be reared. Common men, who in their petty daily acts maintain these ordinary unostentatious truths are the real benefactors of mankind, the real pillars of the State.

Don Cornelio e il suo coadiutore, continuando per a stradetta che conduceva al piano, erano intanto arrivati a un piccolo poggio dove improvvisamente si affacciava un l'ungo tratto della valle. Chi passava di là, ci fosse pure passato mille volte, rallentava il passo, mandava una lunga occhiata a quella scena che gli si parava dinanzi, e faceva volontieri una fermatina, parendogli quasi di riposar meglio che altrove; e intanto correva subito con l' occhio a discernere il suo campanile, la sua casuccia, il suo camperello, tra i casolari, le chiesuole e i poderi che si vedevan sparsi sulle falde dei monti e sul piano della valle: e quando gli aveva ravvisati, si rimetteva più lieto in cammino, come chi s'è imbattuto in qualcuno a cul voglia bene. Don Cornelio e'era fermato, s'era seduto su un muricciolo; e levatosi il cappello, guardava mestamente la valle, intanto che il suo compagno guardava lui di sottocchio, pur avendo l'aria di contemplare anch' esso gli ultimi sprazzi di sole che mano mano abbandonavano le cime deimenti.

The secret presses of London worked without ceasing. Many papers daily came into circulation by means which the magistracy could not discover, or would not check. One of these has been preserved from oblivion by the skilful audacity with which it was written, and by the immense effect which it produced. It purported to be a supplemental declaration under the hand and seal of the Prince of Orange; but it was written in a style very different from that of his genuine manifesto. Vengeance alien from the usages of Christian and civilized nations was denounced against all Papiets who should dare to espouse the royal cause. They should be treated, not as soldiers and gentlemen, but as freebooters. The ferocity and licentiousness of the invading army, which had hitherto been restrained with a strong hand, should be let loose on them. Good Protestants were adjured, as they valued all that was dear to them, to seize, disarm, and imprison their Roman Catholic neighbours. Discerning readers had no difficulty in pronouncing this document a forgery, but the multitude was completely duped.

The opportunity which we let slip in 1854 is offered to us a second, and doubtless last, time to-day. The conditions on which we may avail ourselves of it are matter for negotiation. First and foremost, of course, we shall have to eschew once for all the system of foreign policy by means of periodic scares. We cannot hope to propel and guide a balloon by means of dynamite explosions. But the principal obligations which our adherence to the Triple Alliance would involve are. I am assured on high authority, the following:—The effective strength of our navy should outweigh that of the combined fleets of France and Russin at the outbreak of hostilities. We should undertake the protection of the coasts of Italy; command the Black Sea, blockade Odessa, and, if Turkey were fighting on the side of her former enemy, provisionally take possession of Constantinople. Over and above all this, and in the guise of what theologians term a "work of supererogation," we might feel naturally disposed to extend a helping hand to Italy, and enable her to put her finances upon a sound working basis.

Sono rimasto incantato di Pisa per il clima; se dura così, sarà una beatitudine. Ho lasriato a Firenze il freddo di un grado sopra gelo; qui ho trovato tanto caldo, che ho dovuto gettare il ferratuolo e allegerirani di panni.

L'aspetto di Pisa mi piace assai più di quel di Firenze; questo lung' Arno è uno spettacole così bello, così ampio, così magnifico, così gaio, così ridente che innamora: non ho veduto niente di simile nè a Firenze nè a Milano nè a Koma: e veramente non so se in tutta l' Europa si trovino molte vedute di questa sorta. Vi si passeggia poi, nell' inverno con gran piacere, perchè v' è quasi sempre un' aria di primavera: sicchè in certe ore del giorno quella contrada è piena di mondo, piena di carrozze e di pedoni: vi si sentono parlare diecl o venti lingue, vi brilla un sole bellissimo tra le dorature dei caffè, delle botteghe piene di galanterie, e nelle invertiate dei palazzi e delle case, tutte di bella architettura. Nel resto poi, Pisa è un misto di città grande ed città piccola, di cittadino e di villereccio, un misto così romantico che non ho mai veduto altrettanto. A tutte le altre bellezze si aggiunge la bella lingua. E poi vi si aggiunge che io, grazie a Dio, sto bene, che mangio con appetito, che ho una camera a ponente che guarda sopra un grand' orto, con una grande apertura tanto che si arriva a veder l' orizzonte, cosa di cui bisogna dimenticarsi in Firenze. La gente di casa è buona, i prezzi non grandi; cosa ottima per la mia borsa, la quale non è stata troppo contenta de' Fiorentini.

The other class of local traditions in Damascus is that, relating to St. Paul. It is no wonder that, as every traveller comes near to Damascus, the question arises, where took place that conversion which turned the fortunes of the world. We know only that it was on the road from Jerusalem; and the expression seems to inclicate that Damascus was in sight, perhaps we may even say had come suddenly into sight. Four distinct spots have been pointed out at different times in the neighbourhood, at a greater or less distance, within ten miles of the city. Of these four spots the only one now kept in remembrance is situated at about a quarter of an hour to the east, in the Christian burial ground, and is marked by a small mass of conclomerate stone. Not far off is the so-called tomb of St. George, "the good porter," who is traditionally said to have assisted St. Paul in his escape over the adjacent wall; and to the stone altar erected over this tomb are brought all the coffins of the Christian dead before their interment. A more authentic locality in St. Paul's history is "the Straight Street." From the eastern to the western gate, through the heart of the city, there runs a long thoroughfare, called the "Street of Bazzars," from the bazzars which, after a few hundred yards, contract and fill up its course. Both of the gates bear traces of Roman workmanship. That on the west is now so much blocked up by buildings, as to be almost undistinguishable. That on the east, however, shows distinctly the triple archway, which opened on the great road or street; the large central arch leading to the broad central thoroughfare; the lesser arches on each side leading to the side thoroughfares, divided from the central one by colonnades.

La tierra habitada produce anualmente una cantidad de cosas proporcionadas al consumo universal. El comercio lena con lo supérfluo de un país la necesidad de otro; y en este movimiento continuo, despues de algunas oscilaciones, se nivelan periodicamente la necesidad y la abundancia. Es una suerte melancólica el mirar á los hombres reducidos á echar el dado sobre quien debe morirse de hambre. Miremoslos con tranquilidad, y tendremos ideas mas ciertas y agradables. Hermanos de una gran familia derrahada sobre la tierra, y obligados á darnos mútuo socorro, veremos quel el Autor de la vegetacion nos ha proveido de todo lo necesario para astifacer las necesidades de la vida. Solo las trabas artificiales pudieron reducir los Estados al temor de la hambre, el cual, despues de haber llegado á un cierto punto, la produce seguramente, aun en medio de las provisiones suficientes para remediarlas. La mayor parte de las carestías lo han sido, mas que en realidad, en la opinion: en aquella opinion, reina del mundo, que distribuye entre los hombres y los reinos la felicidad y la miseria, con mas securidad y pretominio que ninguna otra causa física. Digo por tanto, que las leyes prohibitivas ó son causa de esterilidad, ó son inutiles.

Your highnesses commanded me, in the month of January, to proceed with a sufficient armament to the lands of India, ordering that I should not go by land to the East, by which it is the custom to go, but by a voyage to the West, by which course, unto the present time, we do not know for certain that anyone hath passed. And for this purpose your highnesses bestowed great favours upon me, ennobling me, that thenceforward I might style myself Don, appointing me lligh Admiral of the Ocean Sea, and perpetual Viceroy and Governor of all the islands and continents I should discover and gain; and that my eldest son should succeed me, and so on, from generation to generation for ever. I departed, therefore, from the city of Granada, on Saturday the 12th May, of the year 1492, to Palos, a sea port, where I armed three ships well calculated for such service, and sailed from that port well furnished with provisions, and with many seamen, on Friday the 3rd of August of the same year 1492, half an hour before sunrise, and took the route for the Canary islands of your highnesses, to steer my course thence, and navigate until I should arrive at the Indies, and deliver the embassy of your highnesses to those princes, and accomplish that which you had commanded.

The Greek Byzantine Emperors, whom the populace of Constantinople raised at pleasure to the throne or hurled into the dust, had above all things to provide cheap bread. The neighbouring provinces were consequently prohibited from exporting wheat, but this, like all other attempts against nature, instead of supplying the capital, depressed and exasperated the provinces, and ended by ruining the Empire. The Turkish system was simplicity itself; it enacted by law, and sealed by religion, that rule of administration which belongs to the carliest times. Unfortunately, however, the Greek system was not entirely blotted out with the Greek Empire, and, without the necessity, the Sultans followed the practice of their predecessors, so far as to prohibit the exportation of grain. This state of things lasted 376 years, from 1453 till 1829, when, after many ages of security, Constantinople was once more placed between foes on the North and South, traffic by sea was stopped, and she was in want of bread. She had still the two continents open, but the corn administration (Moubaya), invented to feed the capital, blockaded it as effectually by land as the Russian squadrons by sea. Under the presence of absolute famine the old laws were suspended, and instantly plenty reappeared.

[The Examiner read the passage twice: the first time that the Candidates might gather its general sense before beginning to write: the second time slowly, giving them time to write down their English translation of it.]

No es el trabajo la virtud sobresaliente de los pueblos meridionales; la dulzura del clima, la magnifeencia del cielo, la espontaneidad de la tierra y la brillantez del sol hacen creer, sin duda, que se hallan todavia en el Paraiso, y se consideran dispensados de ganarse el sustento con el sudor de la fronte.

El pueblo de que nos ocupamos no se distingue por mingun rasgo especial que le dé carácter proprio. Su antigüedad se descubre desde el momento en que se distingue la fabrica medio arruinada de una torre morisca que se levanta sobre un monte vecino, y permanece allí como una fecha medio borrada. Á sus pies se agrupan las casas formando un laberinto de calles estrechas que se retuercen y se cortan entre si á ojo de buen cubero. Afadase á esto un río muy estrecho, deslizandose cautelosamente por un cauce muy ancho, un puente de piedra y una huerta que se estiende como una alfombra, y se tendrán las lineas generales del paisage.

Es, pues, un pueblo como otro cualquiera, y atendida su magnitud bien puede llamarse poblachon. Mas prescindiendo de lo que hay de intransitable en las calles, de lo que tienen de oscuros los escasos faroles del alumbrado, de la poca comodidad de las casas, y de la sobriedad, de la mesa es un pueblo por lo visto inmejorable, en razoná que á nadle se le ocurre la idea de mejorarlo. Por lo demás se vive en el bien, á lo ménos los vecinos que lo habitan no lo cambiarian por la ciudad mas bella del mundo.

Imaginative reader! have you ever been in a gale of wind off the Bay of Biscay? If not, and you are fond of variety, it is really worth your while to take a trip to Lisbon or Madeira for the chance of meeting with one.

Calculate your season well in December or January, when the south-wester has properly set in, and you will find it one of the finest and most uncomfortable things in the world. My gale lasted from Sunday to Wednesday evening, which is something long perhaps for amusement, but it gave ample room for observation and philosophy. I think I still hear that ineffable hubbub of plates and glasses breaking, chairs and tables falling, women screaming, sailors piping, officers swearing, the wind whistling, and the sea roaring, which awakened me about two o'clock on Monday morning. The Atlantic was gushing in through my port in a very refreshing manner, and ebbing and flowing under and around my bed with every roll of the ship. My clothes were floating on the face of the waters. I turned to sleep again, but the sea came with that awful dead sledge-hammer beat, which makes a landman's heart tremble, and the impertinent quotation of some poor scholar in the next cabin about quatuor aut septem digitos brushed every atom of sleepy dust from my eyes. I sat bolt upright, and for some time contemplated, by the glimmering of the sentry's lantern, the huge disarray of my pretty den; I fished for my clothes, but they were bathing. I essayed to rise, but I could find no resting place for the sole of a rheamatic foot.

It is indeed impossible to deny that, in the great art of inspiring large masses of human beings with confidence and attachment, no ruler ever surpassed Hastings. If he had made himself popular with the English by giving up the natives to extortion and oppression, or if, on the other hand, he had conciliated the natives and alienated the English, there would have been no cause for wonder. What is peculiar to him is that, being the chief of a small band of strangers who exercised boundless powers over a great of strangers who exercised boundless powers over a great indigenous population, he made himself beloved both by the subject many and by the dominant few. The affection felt for him by the civil service was singularly ardent and constant. Through all his disasters and perils, his brethren stoud by him with steadfast loyalty. The army, at the same time, loved him as armies have seldom loved any but the greatest chiefs who have led them to victory. Even in his disputes with distinguished military men he could always coult man the support of the Military profession. always count upon the support of the Military profession. While such was his empire over the hearts of his countrymen, he enjoyed among the natives a popularity, such as other Governors have perhaps better merited, but such as no other Governor has been able to attain. He spoke their dialects with facility and precision. He was intimately acquainted with their feelings and usages. On one or two occasions, for great ends, he deliberately acted in defiance of their opinion; but on such occasions he gained more in their respect than he lost in their love. In general, he carefully avoided all that could shock their national or religious prejudices. These things inspired good-will. At the same time, the constant success of Hastings, and the manner in which he extricated himself from every difficulty, made him an object of superstitious admiration; and the more than regal splendour which he sometimes displayed dazzled a people who have much in common with children.

2 (b) DICTATION (2).

The opinion of the great body of the reading public is very materially influenced even by the unsupported assertions of those who assume a right to criticize. Nor is the public altogether to blame on this account. Most even of those who have really a great enjoyment in reading are in the same state with respect to a book, in which a man who has never given particular attention to the art of painting is with respect to a picture. Every man who has the least is with respect to a picture. Every man who has the least sensibility or imagination derives a certain pleasure from pictures. Yet a man of the highest and finest intellect might, unless he had formed his taste by contemplating the best pictures, be easily persuaded by a knot of interested admirers that the merest daub was in reality a miracle of art. If he deserves to be laughed at, it is not for his ignorance of pictures, but for his ignorance of men. He knows that there is a delicacy of taste in printing which he does not possess, that he cannot distinguish hands as practised judges distinguish them, that he is not familiar with the finest models, that he has never looked at them with close attention, and that, when the general effect of a piece has pleased him or displeased him, he has never troubled himself to ascertain why. When, therefore, people, whom he thinks more competent to judge than himself, and of whose sincerity he entertains no doubt, assure him that a particular work is exquisitely beautiful, he takes it for granted that they must be in the right. He returns to the examination, resolved to find or imagine beauties; and, if he can work himself up into something like admiration, he exults in his own proficiency. Just such is the manner in which nine readers out of ten judge of a book. They are ashamed to dislike what men who speak as having authority declare to be good. However contemptible a poem or novel may be, there is not the least difficulty in procuring favourable notices of it from all sorts of publications.

LA SECTION ANGLAISE À L'EXPOSITION DE 1889.

La section anglaise se distingue de toutes les autres par une grande simplicité; mais elle est la seule dans tout le Champ de Mars qui donne au visiteur l'impression d'un pays complètement différent du nôtré; depuis les ouvriers au chef coîffé du chapeau haute forme jusqu'aux vitrines en bronze doré, tout est différent de ce que l'on voit ailleurs. Ce qui ressemble le plus aux autres expositions, ce sont les objets exposés. Il serait trop long de les énumérer tous et il serait très difficile d'énumérer les plus remarquables et les plus beaux. Cependant on remarque surtout des falences et des porcelaines. Il y a même un immense vase en pâte tendre qui est curieux pour sa forme et fort remarquable par les groupes quil'ornent. Beaucoup de cristaux et de lainages naturellement; un très-curieux pavillon occupé par l'illustrated London News, et tout ce que l'on trouve dans toutes les expositions anglaises: les souliers, les vêtements, les bougies (il y a même un buste de la reine en stéarine), des armes, des munitions et tout ce qui constitue l'Angleterre et la vie anglaise, depuis le meuble à application de faience jusqu'aux grilles pour brûler le charbon sans fumée, sans oublier l'argenterie, massive mais belle. Il y a une très remarquable collection de cuillers appartenant à la corporation des orfèvres de Londres; chaque cuiller est un chef-d'œuvre.

La matinée du lendemain fut splendide. Le printemps envoyait à la terre ses premiers sourires. Les grands arbres, dont la végétation est si lente dans nos climats froids, n'avaient point encore leurs dômes d'impénétrables feuillages, ni leurs massifs de verdure sombre, et leurs têtes chepues et dépouillées laissaient passer l'or des rayons, qui versait une chaleur bienfaisante. Çà et là, sous bois, ou bien au bord des sentiers, les essences les plus hâtées laissaient déjà voir au bout des noirs rameaux des boursiessaient déjà voir au bout des noirs rameaux des boursiessaient je ne sais quelle vague odeur de mousse et d'écorce. Les fleurs téaient rares encore, mais déjà, dans l'herbe drue, on voyait briller la tête de safran des primevères sauvages, et les petites violettes ouvraient leurs yeux bleus le long des ruisseaux. Les merles siffiaient dans les buissons, les chevreuils et les daims bramaient dans les taillis, et, au bout des allées, l'on voyait passer des dames et des messieurs en costume de printemps. Il semblait que l'on entendit bruire, sourdre et germer la vie. C'était, en un mot, une de ces heures vraiment rares où tout dans la nature est harmonie et parfum, où tout semble nous convier à l'amour et au bonheur.

THE SEAPORT OF PARIS.

This has been a dream of the Parisians for a great many years. And now it would seem as if the dream were to become a reality. A Bill has been prepared under the novel title of "Paris, port de mer," and the Chamber will soon be invited to debate the project. In two or three years we shall be speaking of the seaport of Manchester, just as we speak of the seaport of Liverpool. Why, the Paris people ask, should not ocean vessels sail up (remonter) the Seine to the capital as well as through the Mersey-Manchester canal? Why not, indeed? Money can do everything. Canalisation and the improvement of rivers for navigating purposes is an incident in the general international process of cheapening transit. The competition in the price of manufactured goods is so great that the nation which carries more cheaply than its neighbours has an immense advantage over them. In some respects the scheme is not so formidable as it looks at first sight. Paris is one hundred and ten miles from the sea-coast; but only a portion of the river between its mouth and Paris would have to be widened and deepened.

3 (b). French Dictation. Saisie de tabac de contrebande

On a amené hier devant la Cour de Police à Liverpool un marin, nommé William Cuff, accusé d'avoir en sa possession une certaine quantité de tabac de contrebande. Cuff est marchand de tabac ainsi que marin. Monseur Peterson, directeur de la division, qui dirigeait les poursuites, a dit que ce n'état qu'un des cas nombreux, resultant des perquisitions que l'Administration a fait faire dans les boutiques et magasins des marchands de tabac de Liverpool et des environs. Le but que l'on veut atteindre est de détruire complètement la contrebande en tabac. Jusqu'à ce jour seulement les saisles faites s'élèvent déjà à cent vingt-sept; ce qui peut donner une idée de la grande quantité, introduite en fraude, de ce tabac fabriqué à l'étranger et n'ayant payé aucun droit: etl'Administration prie le Magistrat de les aider à détruire cette fraude en imposant de fortes amendes. Cette contrebande fait grand tort à l'Administration et même aux commerçants honnêtes qui naturellement désirent que l'on empêche cette concurrence déloyale. Comme le cas était évident, le Magistrat condamna l'accusé, qui avait déjà été puni pour un semblable délit, à une amende de cinq livres sterling et aux frais.

La industria della pesca viene esercitata in Italia su assai vasta scala ed è sorgente di non piccolo guadagno. Se si pensa che circa sessantamila uomini vi si dedicano abitualmente, e che sulle coste italiane si calcola ci siano sparse sedicimila cinquecento barche a ciò destinate, le quali mettono in commercio più di dodoci milioni di chilogrammi di pesce (del valore di circa cinque milioni di lire) non si può esitare a iconoscere l'importanza che quest'industria ha per l'Italia. Da varii anni si lamenta una scarsità di pesce che va sempre più accentuandosi. A questa minaccia di spopolamento dei mari italiani comincia ad opporsi l'opera del Governo, che impedendo i mezzi di pesca troppo distruttori cerca conservare le specie che presentemente vi albergano. Ma devesi riconoscere che fu ben scarsa finora l'opera dei privati per cercare di favorire questo importante ramo d'industria. Soltanto da pochi anni esistono in Italia stabilimenti di piscicultura, e questi non hanno ancora raggiunto lo sviluppo di cui sono suscettibili. Nella vicina Francia si è perfezionato in modo il sistema di conservazione del pesce, che se ne esporta una ingente quantità, mentre in Italia si hanno ancora sistemi troppo primitivi; perciò il prodotto resta pessimo e di difficile conservazione; ed è quindi poco apprezzato e non si trova a smerciarlo se non a vilissimo prezzo.

Bella ed amabile illusione è quella per la quale i di anniversari di un avvenimento, che per verità non ha che fare con essi più che con qualunque altro di deli anno, paiono avere con quello un'attenenza particolare, e che quasi un'ombra del passato risorga e ritorni sempre in quei giorni, e ci sia davanti; onde è medicato in parte il tristo pensiero dell' annullamento di ciò che fu, e sollevato il dolore di molte perdite, parendo che quelle ricorrenze facciano che ciò che è passato, e che più non torna, non sia spento ne perduto del tutto. E tale immaginazione è si radicata nell' uomo, che a fatica pare che si possa credere che l' anniversario sia così alieno della cosa come ogni altro di: onde il celebrare annualmente le ricordanze importanti, si religiose come civili, si pubbliche come private, i di natalizi e quelli delle morti delle persone care ed altri simili, fu comune, ed è, a tutte le nazioni che ed altri simili, fu comune, ed è, a tutte le nazioni che hanno, ovvero ebbero, ricordanze e calendario. Ed ho notato, interrogando in tal proposito parecchi, che gli uomini sensibili, ed usati alla solitudine, o a conversare internamente, sogliono essere studiosissimi degli anni-versari, e vivere, per dir così, di rimembranze di tal genere, sempre riandando, e dicendo fra sè: in un giorno dell' anno come il presente mi accadde questa o questa 0088.

There seems to be every reason to believe that, in general intelligence, the Athenian populace far surpassed the lower orders of any community that has ever existed. It must be considered that to be a citizen was to be a legislator, a soldier, a judge—one upon whose voice might depend the fate of the wealthiest tributary state, of the most eminent public man. The lowest offices, both of agriculture and of trade, were performed by slaves. The commonwealth supplied its meanest members with the support of life, the opportunity of leisure, and the means of amusement. Books were indeed few: but they were excellent; and they were accurately known. It is not by excellent; and they were accurately known. It is not by turning over libraries, but by repeatedly perusing and intently contemplating a few great models, that the mind is best disciplined. A man of letters must now read much that he soon forgets, and much from which he learns nothing worthy to be remembered. The best works employ, in general, but a small portion of his time. Demosthenes is said to have transcribed six times the history of Thucydides. If he had been a young politician of the present age, he might in the same space of time of the present age, he might in the same space of time have skimmed innumerable newspapers and pamphlets. Yet I do not condemn that desultory mode of study which the state of things, in our day, renders a matter of necessity.

Quei tanti massi nuotanti di ghiaccio, pari a tante galleggianti isolette, rendevano stranissimo l'aspetto di quell' orrido mare che parea piuttosto una terra scompaginata e disciolta, che non un volume di acque: ma il vento essendo tenuissimo, le percosse di quei tavoloni nella mia barca riuscivano piuttosto carezze che urti; tuttavia la loro gran copia e mobilità spesso li facea da parti opposte incontrarsi davanti alla mia prora, e combaciandosi, tosto ne impedivano il solco; e sul ito altri ed altri vi concorreano, ed ammontandosi, facean cenno di rimandarmi nel continente. Rimedio efficace ed unico, veniva allora ad essere l'ascia, castigatrice d'ogni insolente. Più d'una volta i marinari miei, ed anche io stesso scendemmo dalla barca sovra quei massi, e con delle scuri si andavano partendo, e staccando dalle pareti del legno, tanto che desser luogo si remi e alla prora; poi risaltati noi dentro coll' impulso della risorta nave, si andavano cacciando dalla via quegl' insistenti accompagnatori; e in tal modo si navigò il tragitto primo di sette miglia svezzesi in dieci e più ore. La nevità di un tal viaggio mi divertì moltissimo, e debbo confessare che nella sua salvatica nuvidezza la Scandinavia è uno dei paesi d'Europa che mi siano andati più a genio, e destate più idee fantastiche, malinconiche ed anche grandiose, per un certo vasto indefinible silenzio che regna in quell' atmosfera, ove ti indefinible silenzio che regime in qualificatione di globo.

Havia lá no convento-principiou João Semana-uma pintura muito grande, representando a ceia de Christo; e era esta pintura a que mais attrahia as meditações piedosas do tal reverendo, o qual, de olhos fitos n' aquelle quadro, passava horas e horas esquecido de tudo mais. Um outro frade que tinha notado isto, não póde ter mão em si, que lhe não perguntase com aquella voz de lamuria de franciscano manhoso: "Em que pansace vós, irmão, quando con tanta attençao olhaes para este quadro?"—"Nos tormentos que por nos padeceu o Salvador"—respondeu-lhe o tal.—"E longos foram na verdade"—continuó o primeiro. "Mas porque esta pintura, mais do que as outras, vos traz tão sanctas ideias? Não tendes na sorbiristia ed de descriparto de Crus a avuella do Saphor sachristia a do descimento da Cruz e aquella do Senhor preso á columna?"--" É verdade, irmão-diz-lhe então o franciscano com cara de mortificação-é verdade! Mas olhai que não menor tormento era este de ter doze pessoas á mesa e tão pouco de comer em cima d'ella."

E João Semana, dizendo isto, roçou as esporas pela barriga da egoa e partiu, acompanhado d'uma grande gargalhada do reitor, que era perdido por as anecdotas de João Semana. Onde diabo vai este homem buscar estas cousas-dizia o reitor, chorando de tanto que se ria.

No decurso de dous para tres seculos uma grande revolução se operára no systema da fazenda publica de Portugal. Em virtude dessa revolução, em quanto o rei e os concelhos, empobrecidos pelos males da guerra, se debatiam na miseria, as classes privilegiadas achavam ainda recursos para a devassidão e para o luxo, sem empenharem inteiramente nas mãos dos judeos as rendas des suas horars a clares. O catedo que nos primeiros das suas honras e solares. O estado, que, nos primeiros tempos da monarchia, copiára na sua organisação economica o modelo que lhe offerecia a familia; isto é, que vivéra do producto das suas propriedades, dos fructos das terras chamadas então regalengas, e das rendas e foragens, terras chamadas entao regalengas, e das rendas e foragens, a troco das quaes cedera os terrenos onde não só se fundavam grandes povoações, mas tambem se estab-eleciam os herdamentos, as aldeias, e até as pequenas arroteas, desbaratara gradualmente este rico patrimonio. Os reis tinham ido distribuindo essas grangearias destinadas a alimentar a vida collectiva da sociedade, pelos seus ricos homens, pelos seus infanções e pelos seus validos; pelos seus bispos, pelas suas cathedraes e pelos seus mos-teiros. D. Fernando esgotára os derradeiros estillicidos que manavam das antigas fontes de rendimento publico, e a nobreza respigara, até o ultimo grão, o que restara da recolhida seara. O estado continuava, todavia, a achar com que supprir as suas necessidades.

Bien estraño fuera por cierto que, en España auya monarquia es de origen tan remoto que se pierde en la oscuridad de los tiempos, no tuviesen profundo arraigo las ideas y los sentimientos monárquicos; porque aun cuando las invasiones de los pueblos del Norte, las de los árabes y las guerras que á ello fueron consiguientes modificaron y variaron mucho la forma del poder, no cabe duda que la idea de la monarquia sobrevivió á todos los trastornos, viendose de esto una clara y hermosisima prueba al levantarse en Covadonga el trono de Pelayo, despues que segun todas las probabilidade. a día haber perecido para siempre el sólio español con el desastre de Don Rodrigo á las orillas del Guadalete. Donde se ven reunidos algunos cristianos para hacer frente à los sectarios de Mahoma, alli se presenta un rey; su trono son los escudos de los valientes que le levantan en alto y le proclaman caudillo; su diadema es su capacete; su cetro la espada. Acabó poco á poco á descararse la tempestad ; las furiosas ondas cubiertas de bianca espuma comienzan à ensober-lecerse. Estaba el cielo abundante lluvia derramando, furibundos rayos arrojando, y con espantesos truenos el mundo estremeciendo. Sentíase un espantable ruido de las sacudidas maromas y movian gran terror las lamentables voces de los navegantes y marineros. Los vientos por todas partes la nave combatian, las ondas con terribles golpes en ella sacudiendo, las más enteras y mejor clavadas tablas hendian y desbarataban. A veces el soberbio mar hasta el ciclo nos levantaba, y luego hasta los abismos nos des-reñaba, y á veces espantosamente abriendose, las más profundas arenas nos descubria. Los hombres y mugeres promunas aremis nos descueria. Los nomores y mugeres à ma y otra parte corriendo, su desventurada muerte dilatando, unos entrañables suspiros esparcian, otros piadosos votos ofrecian, y otros dolorosas lágrimas der-ramaban. Ignoraba la naturaleza y origen de los vientos y an mismo muero. la nateraleza y origen de los vientos, y en un mismo punto mil cosas diferentes ordenaba. Los marineros con la agonía de la cercana muerte turbados, no sabían ejecutar lo mandado, ni con tantas voces y ruido podian oir el mandamiento y orden del ronco y congojado piloto. Unos amainan la vela, otros vuelven la antena, otros añudan las rompidas cuerdas, otros remiendan las despedazadas tablas, otros el mar en el mar vacian, otros al timon socorren; y en fin todos procuran defender la miserable nave del inevitable perdimiento. It may be said, and perhaps with too much truth, that the business of shopkeeping, as it is generally conducted. has little tendency to ennoble the character: and that perpetually striving to please, for purposes of self-interest, those who in reality are sometimes cordially despised, is lowering to the dignity of a man, to say nothing of a gen-tleman. It may be asked, on the other hand, who, in the present state of society, is exempt from this particular kind of degradation? The lawyer, who may be said almost to hold the destinies of his fellow-creatures in his hand—he cringes to his wealthy client, and often works his way to distinction by concealing his real sentiments, and pretending to be other man than he is. The doctor, too, with his untiring patience and his imperturvable serenity, approaching with apparent kindness and respect, where every feeling of his soul is repelled-who would speak of him as an independent man, more especially in the outset of his career? Nor is this less the case with other professions, all which, however, are esteemed more honourable, and consequently more eligible, than any kind of trade. But let his occupation be what it may, it is the honest heart, the upright principle, the steady mind, and the unbiased judgment, which give him dignity wherever he may be

Reasons for passing this Act. '

Whereas several turbulent and |disorderly persons having in a most outrageous manner insulted the person of His Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matueof, Ambassador Extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, Her Majesty's good friend and ally, by arresting him, and taking him by violence out of his coach in the publick street, and detaining him custody for several hours, in contempt of the protection granted by Her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in prejudice of the rights and privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorized and received as such, have at all times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable

[Ss. 1, 2, repealed 30 and 31 Vict. c. 59.]

All Process against Ambassadors Void.

3. And to prevent the like insolences for the future, be it further declared by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes that shall at any time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any foreign Prince or State, authorized and received as such by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the domestick, or domestick servant of any such Ambassador, or other Publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their goods or chattels may be distrained, seized or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

Persons Suing, or Officers, &c., executing such Process.

4. And . . . . in case any person or persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such writ or process, such person and persons, and all attorneys and sollicitors prosecuting and solliciting in such case, and all officers executing any such writ or proces;, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any two of them, shall be deemed violators of the Laws of Nations, and disturbers of the publick repose, and shall suffer such pains, penalties, and corporal punishment, as the [said †] Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any two of them, shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

Trader.

5. [‡ Provided and be it declared, that no merchant or other trader whatsoever, within the description of any of the statutes against bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the service of any such Ambassador or Publick Minister, shall have or take any manner of benefit by this Act.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

- 6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registered in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

GENERAL DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING ACCOUNT BOOKS.

The Size of Paper may be given in inches.

Description of Paper—Blue Laid Hand-made is always used, unless in structions are given to the contrary.

Thickness of Book—The number of Pages should be given; two pages constitute a leaf or folio, and two leaves or folios or four pages form a sheet.

Pattern for Ruling—Patterns of ordinary Rulings are on next page; if any other be required, a whole sheet should be sent.

Description of Binding—Russia, Calf, Vellum, with single or double Russia Bands, Basil, Forril, half Russia, half Calf, half Vellum, half Basil, with cloth or paper sides.

Lettering-If on Back or Side, or both.

Indexes—Ruled blue lines, unless a pattern for the Ruling be sent, are bound up with the Book, if not ordered in a separate binding. The number of leaves to each letter should be stated.

Paging or Folioing—Care should be taken to state distinctly whether the Book is to be paged or folioed; if paged, the numbers run consecutively, thus: (1) (2; if folioed, both pages in the opening have the same number, thus: 1) (1.

PATENT DUPLEX PRESS.

SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, CHEAPNESS, POWER.

For Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c.

MESSRS. HARRISON & SONS beg to call attention to the Patent Duplex Press, so little force is needed to work it, that the Press requires no fixing, and a stand is not necessary; it may be placed on an ordinary table or desk.

It is constructed without screw or springs, the power being produced by a Cam. From the extreme simplicity of its mechanism, it can be supplied at one-half the price of an ordinary screwpress.

The Patent Duplex Press can be fitted with a lock, so as to prevent its being used by an unauthorized person.

Directions for Use.

To copy a letter or other writing, extend the book on a table or desk, with the case toward you; place your letter under a leaf of the book with the writing uppermost; wet the cloth, squeeze it as dry as possible with one hand, and spread it over the leaf. Lay the oiled paper over the cloth to prevent wetting the preceding leaf; roll the case on the table so as to furl the book tightly round it, and in five seconds you will have a perfect copy.

When the letter to be copied covers two or more sides of the sheet, a half sheet of plain paper placed between the written sides will prevent blotting.

Good copying ink should be used.

When one book is filled, it can be slipped out of the groove, and replaced by another.

Per Ream.

These compact and convenient Inkstands will be found very suitable for the pocket or travelling bag. Their construction secures them from leakage and from the liability to upset when in use.

Directions for Opening and Shutting the Framed Inkstands.

Push the ink case at the part marked "Push" and, when raised to a right angle with the frame, slide it to the centre. In sliding the ink case back into the frame, apply the pressure at the lowest part, and it will be found to move along the groove quite easily.

THE CHROMOGRAPH.

THE CHROMOGRAPH is an ingenious invention which enables any one to produce a number of copies from MSS, written with a special ink supplied with the Apparatus, and is, therefore, invaluable to those who are often requiring reproductions of their letters, invitations, despatches, circulars, plans, or drawings, fifty fac-similes of which can be produced in a few moments, without any knowledge of Printing or Lithography being required. The Apparatus consists of two flat metal boxes lined with a gelatinous composition, which answers the same purpose as the stone in Lithographic Printing, and these cases are separable and close together in the shape of a book.

The MS. to be copied is written on any kind of paper, and with any pen (either steel or quill), with the ink supplied, and the writing or drawing, being perfectly dry, is placed face downwards on the composition and the hand passed lightly over it two or three times, the paper is then pulled gently off (in the same manner as shown in the illustration above), and a fac-simile counterpart of the writing or drawing will be found transferred to the composition. A sheet of paper of any kind is then laid upon the composition and smoothed down lightly with the hand, and after two or three seconds is withdrawn in the same manner as before mentioned, and a clear and perfect copy of the original will be found printed upon it. This operation is repeated as often as required, from eight to ten minutes only being required to produce forty to fifty copies.

Immediately the requisite number of copies are printed, fill the sponge supplied with the Apparatus with clean cold water, and rub the surface gently, and the writing will be speedily effaced, as easily, in fact, as pencil writing from the surface of a porcelain slate.

If the composition is at any time accidentally scratched or broken, it can be remelted by heating it and allowing it to cool, care being taken to prevent dust from settling on it when in a liquid state.

This Apparatus has been supplied and found most useful to Merchants, Secretaries, and most of H. M.'s Ambassadors, Consuls, and Agents abroad.

This Work having engaged the personal attention of the Editor for a considerable period of time, will be found most valuable, not only to the Student of Heraldry and those personally interested in its pages, but to all who are brought into connection with the subject by their professions—such as Engravers, Silversmiths, Coach Builders, Die Sinkers, &c. Uniform with "The Peerage," "The Landed Gentry," &c. 1,280 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 12s. 6d. Out of Print.

Burke's Landed Gentry of Great

Thoroughly Revised. BRITAIN. TENTH EDITION, 1900. Editor has been enabled, in diligent collaboration with the families themselves, to make this edition especially complete, accurate and interesting, not only to the landed classes but to all lovers of family history. All the well-known features of the work have been retained, and much additional information is given which will, it is hoped, enhance the value of the book from every point of view. To illustrate the thousands of articles, a very large number of representations in fac-simile of the Armorial Book Plates in use by the heads of families are given. Their artistic merit and heraldic interest must, it is felt, extend the wide popularity of this standard work. The LANDED GENTRY is a vast compendium of genealogical knowledge, for it contains the records of nearly four thousand families in England and Scotland, with all their branches, and accurate descriptions of their heraldic insignia. It is published in one volume, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory," &c., &c. Edited by Ashworth P. Burke. Super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 2s.

Burke's Landed Gentry of Ireland,

Burke's Peerage, Baronetage, Knight-

AGE, &c. This PERRAGE AND BARONETAGE is the only volume published annually, which gives a genealogical account of the families of the Peers and Baronets of the realm, with their collateral branches. Its plan is therefore not merely confined to lists of the surviving relations of Peers and Baronets, but contains an account of every member of their families living and dead, to each of whom a separate paragraph is devoted. In the Key will be found the name of everyone entitled to precedence, with a number prefixed to each, showing at a glance their exact relative precedence. The rules of PRECEDENCE are set forth in ample detail. To the Peerage and Baronetage proper is added the KNIGHTAGE, which gives in alphabetical order an account of every Knight, Commander, Companion and Member of the various orders of Knighthood, and of their widows. The complete list of these ORDERS are also given with their members in order of precedence. An account of FOREIGN TITLES used by British Subjects will be found at the end of the work. The Illustrations with Blazons of the Arms are a special feature of this work. The 1900 Edition has for FRONTISPIECE a photogravure of the late SIR BERNAED BURKE. Over 2,000 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Edited by ASHWORTH P. BURKE. Uniform with the "Landed Gentry." Price £2 2s. (Published annually.)

- 44 Has for more than half-a-century been regarded as containing a history of all the great titled families in the Empire. There is scarcely a page in the volume that is not full of interest..... There is an excellent index to the work.... Considerable space is devoted to the question of precedence."—Times.
- "The foremost place among works of reference is claimed, almost by traditional right, by Sir Bernard Burke's 'Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage,' which still remains the Standard Authority as to Aristocratic Lineage."—Whitehall Review.
- "Constant referen e to the pages of 'Burke' enables us to testify to its invariable accuracy.
  . . . For completeness and comprehensiveness on all matters connected with Titles of honour it is unsurpassed "—Court Journal.

DR.J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

Chlorodyne

Is the Great Specific for

CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA. COUCHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. C. BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED a REMEDY to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and, as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.

This Caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of chlorodyne, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states, "Two doses completely cured me of diarrhea."

- DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the true Palliative in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.
- DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN OF EVERY KIND, affords a calm, refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the nervous system when exhausted.
- DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The IMMENSE SALE of this REMEDY has given rise to many unscrupulous imitations. Be careful to observe Trade Mark. Of all Chemists, is. 1\frac{1}{2}d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
